

from such sale, after deducting six cents for every goose, and twenty cents for every hog, for his trouble, shall be paid by the bailiff to the commissioners of said town; and if the geese or swine be the property of any person residing in said town, the owner shall forfeit and pay to the bailiff ten cents per day for every goose, and sixty cents per day for every hog, impounded as aforesaid, and the money arising from such forfeiture shall be paid by him to the commissioners.

73. All fines, penalties and forfeitures herein imposed for the violation of the charter of the town of Cambridge, or imposed by any ordinance of said town, may be recovered in the name of the commissioners, before any justice of the peace for Dorchester county, as small debts are recovered, and shall be applied to the repair and support of the market house, and the purchase and repair of scales, weights and measures, or otherwise in the discretion of the commissioners, for the benefit of said town.

CIRCUIT COURT.

74. There shall be four terms of the Circuit Court for Dorchester county in each year, commencing on the fourth Monday in each of the months of January, April and July, and the second Monday of November.

75. The sheriff of Dorchester county shall summon and return, according to law, a panel of persons qualified to serve as jurors, to the spring and fall terms of said court.

76. The judge of the Circuit Court for Dorchester county shall have power to pass all such rules as shall be necessary to facilitate the transaction of business in said court; Provided, however, that such rules shall provide for the transaction of equity business, and the said court for equity business shall be considered to be always open.

COLLECTORS.

77. The collector of taxes levied for the use of Dorchester county, may enforce the collection of the same by distress or execution.

78. Whenever he shall find it necessary to proceed by way of distress or execution to collect such taxes, he shall first leave with the party by whom the taxes are to be paid, or at his usual
